A NEW YEAR MESSAGE FROM THE DISTRICT CHAIRS

Dreams can be so different from reality! In the run-up to Christmas, pretty snow-covered Christmas cards and songs such as "I'm dreaming of a white Christmas" summoned up pictures of a cosy, family gathering around a real fire, eating and drinking to their heart's content. However, the reality of "snow has fallen snow on snow" is very different:

- People stuck at Heathrow beginning to realise they might not be able to be with family for Christmas;
- People in flats near one of our churches, living without water or heating for a week;
- vulnerable people wondering whether they can afford to keep the heating on for so long;
- The frail stuck in their houses, dependent on neighbours for ensuring they had the basics such as sufficient food for the holidays;
- Emergency workers risking life and limb as they tried to ensure those who needed help received it.

I guess that the first Christmas was not too different. Dreams of a messiah, a Saviour who would come and recreate the world as God intended it. However, in reality a weak helpless baby born a long way from home, visited by those who were having to work all night and who were excluded from the Temple. For most I suspect that the event went unnoticed and they simply got on with business as usual. But for those of us with ears to hear, a fanfare of angels announcing his birth, God with us in the midst and the mess of it all.

Only the full message of the Incarnation is sufficient to touch those of us who are hurting or lonely, grieving or longing for something different. Only the gospel message of the incarnation is sufficient to ensure that the people of God called Methodist are true to our calling. God with us, wherever we are, whatever our circumstances, waiting for us to notice, longing for us to receive his love and grace and longing for us to let his love and grace flow through us to those around. God with us, in the children drawing smiley faces on my snow-covered car, in the neighbour who set an extra place at the Christmas table, in the one who opened up the church for those with nowhere to go, in the one who gave or received an unlooked-for gift.

It was good in the last bout of snow to wake up to news on Radio 4 of how a Methodist Church in the Sheffield District had opened its doors to the lorry drivers stuck on the road outside and that teams had gone into action offering hospitality. Now that's gospel.

We're delighted by the stories of what churches within the London District are doing to share the good news and to respond to the communities around them. Keep the stories coming in so that we can encourage and inspire one another, but above all be open to the surprises that God has in store in the midst of all the difficulties and be open to becoming part of the story of God's surprising response to those around you.

Wishing you peace and joy as you seek to be good news.

Jenny, Irmal, Stewart.

(Slightly edited for reasons of space. The full letter can be found on www.methodistlondon.org.uk/chairsmessage)

The following poem was inspired by a lady called Phil Bevan who responded to God's call to take aid to Myanmar after the floods there.

God's whisper to me

God whispered in my ear one day
And said how it would be.
I shrugged and turned away and said,
"No way, you can't mean me."

Next time it wasn't a whisper
He spoke quite loud and clear
He had a job for me to do
He said" Have faith, don't fear."

So I took the challenge offered
But how should I begin
This task was much to big for me
I had to trust in Him.

When the problems overwhelmed me
And I couldn't see my way
I'd put my hope and faith in Him
Fall to my knees and pray

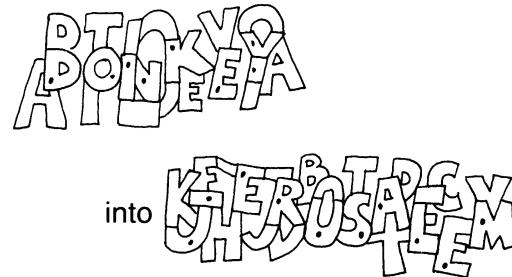

And my God, He never failed me
Through good days and through bad
He filled me with a courage
I never knew I had.

So if you feel God calling you
Don't doubt and answer "No."
He know the plans he has for you
Step out in faith...and go!

ROUND THE FAMILY

We were pleased to hear that Dave and Sandra Hynes' son Richard was awarded the MBE in the New Year's Honours List for services to community safety in South Africa. As some of you may know, Richard has been involved in a partnership between authorities in South Africa, the Metropolitan Police and British Airways, and funded by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, which uses football as a vehicle to educate young people, drive down crime and promote community cohesion in deprived townships in South Africa.

Several of our congregation have been ill with various bugs over Christmas. In particular Hetty Thatcher was very unwell with a bad cold and subsequent chest infection which kept her away from church for several weeks, and Anita Yusuf has been suffering from a recurring virus which has caused a cough and laryngitis for a couple of months.

Our services over the Christmas period were not so well attended as usual, probably due to the snow and ice. The ice also prevented our carol singing in aid of Action for Children as the pavements were so slippery. However, all our Junior Church children managed to get to the Gift and Carol Service, and all took part in a re-telling of the nativity story.

The Church received Christmas greetings from Jenny and the Rev. Graham Cocking, The Rev. Judy and Alan Turner-Smith, the Rev. Dr. Philip and Laurel Luscombe, Rose Bate-man, Ronnie Butler, Sheila Cassidy, Abraham Doku, Muriel French, Dawn McConochie and Sarah Batchelor, Shirley and George Quintrell, Joan and Royce Warner, Emmanuel United reformed Church, Upper Norwood Methodist Church, Forest Hill Methodist Church, Wesley Hall Methodist Church and The Camphill Community.

NEWS FROM FATHER RUIZ

Many of you support Father Ruiz and the Casa Ricci Social Services by your donations to "Joan's Tin". The following is taken from the latest edition of the charity's newsletter.

"Two weeks ago Fr. Luis Ruiz celebrated his 98 years old birthday. Unlike last year, he didn't spend his birthday in Macau, but celebrating the inauguration of the new HIV Children Home that Casa Ricci together with AIDS Care China has started in Guangdong province. Around the 9 children who lives in the home were people from all around the world: our own staff, government officials, religious sisters, HIV+ friends, benefactors, partner friends of Maryknoll and Salesian ...and Fr. Ruiz. We were not many, but very diverse. A new community has been created, centred in the children and opened to everybody. A community where nobody needs to hide his or her own identity. Love breaking walls, defeating fear, distrust and exclusion. That is Fr. Ruiz's mission and legacy to all of us. This is Fr. Ruiz's legacy to China."

In his covering letter Father Ruiz wrote "...I am 98 years old, our Lord can take me any time as He please. The doctor was very happy to see me in so good condition and in reality I am feeling very well. Thanks for the blessing from our Lord.

Recently I was very happy that I could go to Han Zhong-Xian in 3 days, to see my leper patients, nearly 300 in our home with 8 Sisters and volunteers who take care of them. Everyone was well dressed and had plenty of food. They are repairing more houses to receive more yet. I want to go back to see the new houses for the newcomers and bless every one of them.

Actually I have to take care of 44 Aids little children and 12 adult Aids in 5 centres under the care of the Sisters.

Remembering you in my Masses and prayers, and wishing you and your dear ones...every blessing in the New Year 2011."

LETTER FROM OXFAM

Joan Loring, our Oxfam Pledged Gifts representative, has received the following letter from Oxfam:-

"Dear Miss Loring

"Thank you all so much for your hard work and the support you have given Oxfam in 2010. We have completed our annual review and altogether you have raised the great sum of £28,550. I hope you all feel justifiably proud of what you achieved.

"In years of responding to disasters , the destruction and logistical challenges caused by Haiti's earthquake which struck on 12 January 2010, were amongst the worst Oxfam had ever encountered. Our Haiti response (coordinated from a makeshift office in a battered hut after our Port-au-Prince office had been destroyed) has been a story of obstacles overcome.

"As with the Asian tsunami emergency almost five years earlier, public support for the Haiti disaster was overwhelmingly generous, with over $US 98 million raised worldwide to fund Oxfam's humanitarian response. One year on and Oxfam has achieved considerable success in a context of overwhelming ongoing human need. At the time of writing, we have reached over 500,000 people with our earthquake response program, and a further 700,000 people with activities to prevent the spread of cholera....

"We hope you all had a peaceful and happy Christmas and wish you all the best for 2011.

Charlotte Isles Ken Smith"

Christmas Post Boxes

Despite the snowy weather, all cards posted by the date of the last collection were delivered in time for Christmas. Donations received amounted to £86.19 (2009 = £101.44), which has been sent to St. Christopher's Hospice.

Action for Children

We had only planned to go carolling on one evening at Christmas but regrettably this had to be cancelled due to the treacherous condition of the pavements.

It had also been our intention to fix a new date for the Snowflake social, postponed because of snow last year. However, as we don't want to be caught out by the weather again we have decided to cancel the event. This means that Action for Children will have missed out on two fund-raising activities. Instead we hope to organise an alternative event in the better weather, which we hope everyone will support.

Christian Action Group

Our winter programme concludes with visits from the Revd. John Taylor (minister of Penge Congregational Church) on Tuesday 15th February and the Revd. Derek Stanworth (retired Methodist Minister who has previously worked in the Caribbean) on Monday 14th March. If you would like to come along and/or need a lift please let Andrew know.

Christian Aid

Andrew hopes to undertake a Sponsored Walk to raise funds for Christian Aid Week. Further details in the next edition of the magazine.

INTROIT

Our introit for the next four months will be as follows:-

Draw near to God and He'll draw near to you;
 Draw near to God and He'll draw near to you.
 Lift up holy hands to Him and sing of what He's done;
 Open up your hearts to Him and praise Him for His Son;
 Draw near to God and He'll draw near to you;
 Draw near to God and He'll draw near to you.

RETIRING COLLECTIONS DURING FEBRUARY

Our retiring collections at Communion Services during February will be for Crisis, the national charity for single homeless people. Their stated purpose is to end homelessness by transforming the lives of homeless people and by preventing people becoming homeless.

They are dedicated to ending homelessness by delivering life-changing services and campaigning for change. They work in key areas of employment, education, housing, Crisis Skylight (providing training and employment), health and well-being and—probably the most well-known—Crisis at Christmas. More details of their work can be found on their website: www.crisis.org.uk.
